PHYSICIAN PROFILES

Dr. Abtin Shahriari is a highly skilled board-certified oral maxillofacial surgeon, having completed a combined eight years of specialty training at some of America's top institutions, including an Ivy League degree from the University of Pennsylvania and Emory University. He has performed thousands of surgeries, from outpatient procedures performing facial and oral implants, facial cosmetics and rejuvenation, corrective jaw surgery, and pathology, to extremely complex facial reconstructions and high-risk trauma cases in the area's Level 1 trauma centers.

Dr. Abtin, as his patients know him, is an actively practicing surgeon, lecturer, author, and medical broadcaster. He has been featured in various media such as NBC, Atlantan, and the Marietta Daily Journal, for his contributions to the medical and dental fields. His achievements are numerous and include publishing in national and international medical journals and textbooks. He volunteers his skills performing surgeries treating children with cleft lip and palate with his non-profit organization Project Global Smile.

His surgery center is equipped with state-of-the-art technology, and offers a comfortable and friendly environment for patients. Using three-dimensional virtual reality surgical planning, the latest safety equipment, and strict safety protocols, GAOFS is one of the premier oral facial surgery offices in the area.

Dr. Abtin genuinely cares for his patients, and spends most of his consultation time listening to their concerns. His philosophy is treating patients as though they are one's own family members. He makes certain his staff operates the same principles he values when it comes to care.

At GAOFS, patients encounter not only one of the best surgeons in one of the area's best equipped offices, they encounter a doctor who has heartfelt compassion and caring for his patients. Dr. Abtin is never satisfied until he knows he has given his patients the best care.
